REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

To—The Registering Officers in Mysore and Coorg, Circular Memorandum No. 11 of 1880—81, dated 11th October 1880.

At the request of the Judicial Commissioner, the Inspector General of Registration has the honor to direct the attention of Registering Officers in Mysore and Coorg to the Judicial Commissioner's Rules of Practice No. 28, dated 8th March 1880, paras 4 and 5 (Vide Mysore Gazette, Part II, page 169 of 20th idem) and to request that every facility be given to parties desiring to search the Register No. I and the indexes relating to immovable property.

2. Agreeably to Clause VIII of the Table of Registration Fees, the fee chargeable for any search is one rupee only, without reference to the number of books or number of years over which it may extend. The search must be made by the applicant in the presence of the Registering Officer who, if it prove fruitless, will give the party a certificate, should he require one.

3. When a particular document is searched for and the applicant gives the date or year of execution with name of executant or description of property, and the document, after reference to the indexes of the year named, is not found in the Register by the Registering Officer, he will certify that the document has not been registered.

4. When particulars as above are not given and the applicant merely searches the books to ascertain whether any document relating to a specified property has been registered at any time during a series of years, the Registering Officer, having given the party full access to the books, should certify that the Indexes and Registers of those years have been made available to the party for the purpose of search on his paying the prescribed fee.

H. HUDSON,
Inspector General of Registration, Mysore.
